

Learn how the Aetna Whole Health SM plan can cover your employees' out-of-network dependents

It's now easier than ever to coordinate care with Aetna Whole Health network doctors. But what if your employees have dependents that don't live nearby? Or travel frequently outside of their network coverage area? Don't worry — that's where we come in.

You have options — and they do, too

Your employees might have children going to school in another state or country. Or dependents that travel frequently for work. If so, you can offer additional options for those dependents*:

- Out-of-network option: If your employees' dependents live outside of the Aetna Whole Health network, but within another Aetna
